

Philosophy

Part I Section B

Activity Centres Incorporated (the Centre) and its staff aim to provide quality care in a safe and friendly, home-like environment, which encourages children to grow and develop new skills, confidence and self esteem at a level where the child feels comfortable.

We aim to be supportive to our parents and strive for open communication and good relations between parents, staff, children, management and the community.