

Glitter Tattoo Risk Assessment

Darlington Activity Centre

Risk Rating Key

Very High High Risk Medium Risk Low Risk

Activity	Hazard	Risk Assessment (use Matrix)	Control Measure	Who	When
Glitter tattoos applied to children by educators	Cosmetic body glue is ingested		Educator to explain safety rules to all children before activity begins.
			Educators are to apply cosmetic body glue to children's skin, children are not to apply it themselves.
			Cosmetic glue/glitter tattoos are not to be applied to children's faces.
			SDS for cosmetic body glue is available.
			First aid trained educator is available at the service at all times.
	Cosmetic body glue gets into child's mouth or eyes		Cosmetic glue/glitter tattoos are not to be applied to children's faces.
			Educator to stop activity, notify RP and have child attended to by first aid qualified educator.
			First aid trained educator is available at the service at all times.
	Child has a skin reaction to cosmetic body glue		Children are advised that if their skin becomes itchy, red or a rash appears to let an educator know.
			First aid qualified educator to assist child to remove glue/glitter tattoo with soapy water.
				First aid trained educator is available at the service at all times.

Activity	Hazard	Risk Assessment (use Matrix)	Control Measure	Who	When
	Child has a skin reaction to the adhesive of stencil
	Cross contamination
Completed by:			Approved By:
Signature:		Date:	Signature:		Date:

- Face paint is ingested.
- Face paint enters child's mouth and/or eyes.
- Child has a skin reaction to the face paint.
- Paint brush enters child's mouth and/or eyes.

Risk Assessment Communication Record - (insert name) Risk Assessment

Educator/Staff Name	I have read and understood this Risk Assessment (tick)	Date & Signature	Educator/Staff Name	I have read and understood this Risk Assessment (tick)	Date & Signature

